

Click here for Rep. Adrian Smith's comments regarding Recovery.gov, the amount of money spent, and the numbers of jobs created by the massive stimulus bill passed earlier this year are now available. Smith opposed the legislation.

According to the site, the federal government spent $858,235,100 to create 2,839 jobs in Nebraska. This amounts to $295,000 per job. The report for Nebraska also listed several congressional districts which do not exist, including the 4th, 14th, 31st, 44th, and 48th.